

Executive:

Sheila Carson (President), has been a volunteer with the Government House Historical Society for twenty-seven years. This is her third term on the board of directors. In the past she was president of the Society for twelve years, and the coordinator for the Victorian Tea Room for eight and the last volunteer still working with the tea room who was part of its launch as a one-year project in 1991.

Dale Richardson, Vice President and Secretary, joined the board in 2016. Before joining the board, he has been a very active volunteer and member of the Society for many years, helping out at the Annual Antique and Collectible Auction and Black Tie Auctions, the Victorian Teas, and the Lieutenant Governor's Garden Party.

Adrian Golbey, Treasurer, was elected to the board in April 2018 and he took on the responsibility of the Treasurer. He has been a GHHS member and a volunteer for many years. He assisted with the Annual Antique and Collectible Auction, the Christmas Market and the Tea, and is a member of the Bylaws and Policy Committee.

Directors:

Lorna Bingaman, started with GHHS as a volunteer before she joined the board in 2012. She is a GHHS member and has been a volunteer for the Victorian Tea Room for over 10 years. She served as the Treasurer for four years and just recently stepped down from the role.

Charlene Balion became a Director of the Board in April 2016. She is Chair of the New Event Committee and the Communications Committee.

Ken Exner is a new GHHS member who recently became aware of the mandate of the Government House Historical Society. He joined the board in April 2018 and looks forward to serving on the board assisting with the various events.

Kevin Gooding, Membership Director, started with GHHS as a volunteer and then joined the board in April 2015. He is a member and volunteers with the Black Tie auction and has volunteered with Jocko's Friends. Kevin was the Volunteer Coordinator Liaison before switching portfolios to membership. He is looking after the GHHS membership registrations and renewals, and has been successful with getting membership renewals information out on time and in bringing the GHHS membership database up to date.

Bonnie Racz joined the GHHS Board in April 2014. She is the Victorian Tea Room Coordinator and volunteers in the kitchen and for the GHHS Alumni Committee.

Dr. Jennifer Thompson is a new GHHS member, but has attended and volunteered at a number of events at Government House. She joined GHHS board in April 2018.

Nettie Uhren, has been an active member of the Society and served on the Annual Antique and Collectible Auction and Black Tie Committees for several years, and was also the Volunteer Coordinator Liaison. She is currently the co-chair of the Collectibles Committee.

Gayle White is a GHHS member and volunteer. She joined the board in April 2018. She serves on the Collectibles Committee and is the Assistant Editor of The Society Times.